BIO 2007

Tommie Pardue is a special events consultant and an avid arts advocate. She is a retired educator and formerly was the music instructional supervisor for Memphis City Schools. On any given day you may find her actively involved in leadership, in board duties, and working on community events.

She was a delegate to the 2002 Cannes Film Festival in France and serves as the treasurer of the Memphis and Shelby County Film and Television Commission. She is on the Autozone Liberty Bowl Board of Directors. She was chairman of the steering committee and is treasurer of the Board for "Play It Again, Memphis", a program that collects used musical instruments from the public, refurbishes them, and gives them to deserving young people. She also served as Chairman of the Board for the Mid-South Coliseum and was on the Board for the Germantown Performing Arts Centre in Memphis. She is a member of the Executive Board for the Center for Arts Education for the Memphis Arts Council and is on the music panel for the Tennessee Arts Commission.

Mrs. Pardue is co-author of the book, "Keyboard Strategies to Meet The National Standards In Music", published by the Music Educators National Conference and has been published in a number of national professional journals for music education. She was a regular columnist for the "Tennessee Musician".

She received the "Lifetime Achievement" Award from the Tennessee Arts Academy in Nashville - an award given to the Tennessee educator whose life work has been acknowledged as a positive influence for the arts in the education of Tennessee students. She and her daughter, Cherrie Holden, were selected as two of "50 Women Who Make A Difference" by the Memphis Women's Magazine - the first mother/daughter team to receive this honor. She is listed in four editions of "Who's Who" and also received the 2002 "Distinguished Woman" Award at the Ritz Carlton in Palm Beach, Florida given by Northwood University.

Tommie was married to H. Gerald Pardue (deceased) for 46 years. They have three daughters and sons-in-law; Janie and Dr. Steve Charles, Cherrie and Rich Holden, and Rhea and Billy Swaze and four grandchildren.
